PREAMBLE

We the students of Maynooth University and Saint Patrick's Pontifical University (which are hereinafter called the "University" which expression shall where the context so admits or requires includes its successors in title and permitted assigns) do hereby reaffirm our previous resolution to unite and form a union to represent our members to the University and other bodies. The Union shall represent all students and shall be the sole representative organisation for students.

The Union shall be a democratically governed independent and autonomous association that shall represent the rights of students without bias, fear, or favour, and shall be respectful of the differing views within the membership, but accountable to those members for the exercise of our powers.

This constitution hereby revokes all previous constitutions.

ARTICLES

PART I – PRELIMINARY & GENERAL

Article 1 – TITLE OF THE ORGANISATION

- 1 The name of the organisation shall be 'Maynooth Students' Union' (abbreviated 'MSU') and hereinafter referred to as 'the Union'.
- 2 The name of the Union in the Irish language shall be 'Aontas na Mac Léinn, Má Nuad'.

Article 2 – VISION, MISSION, & VALUES

- 1 The vision of the Union is to create an environment in which every member is provided with a world-class academic and student life experience.
- 2 The mission of the Union is to provide for, promote, and defend the interests of its members.
- 3 The values of the Union are democracy, transparency, accountability, integrity, sustainability, and respect.

Article 3 – AIMS & OBJECTIVES

- 1 The primary objective of the Union shall be to provide for and promote and defend the interests of its members. It shall endeavour in particular to:
 - i Act as a representative body for its members and other students of the University.
 - ii Act as the recognised means of communication between the members of the Union and the authorities of the University.
 - iii Endeavour to work in partnership at all levels with the University in the best interests of the members.
 - iv Promote the practice of democratisation at all levels of higher education through collective and individual participation of the members of the Union.
 - v Ensure that every member shall have the right to participate in the democratic life of the Union. Decisions of the Union shall be taken as openly and as closely as possible to the member.

- vi Actively promote the engagement of the student body in the activities of the Union and student affairs in general.
- vii Provide and manage the Union's social, recreational, and commercial services for the benefit of its members.
- viii Promote the expansion and development of student services as provided by the University for the benefit of students.
- ix Provide the structures and means whereby students can partake in an ongoing re-evaluation of the educational process and become more positively involved in their education.
- x Promote the unity of the organisation and contact between members through assisting clubs, societies, and other organisations of students within the University.
- xi Ensure that no member is discriminated against on grounds of gender, marital status, family status, nationality, sexual orientation, religion, political belief, age, disability, race, or membership of the Traveller community.
- xii Actively pursue good relations within and with the local community and promote the message of respecting one's university town amongst the student body.
- xiii Improve its environmental sustainability performance and actively encourage the University and wider community to follow suit for the benefit of the student body and community now and in the future.
- xiv Promote and develop the Irish language among its members, and throughout the University.

2 The Union shall practice the above aims and objectives independent of:

- i political parties;
- ii religious organisations;
- iii lobbying groups; and,
- iv in accordance with the law.

Article 4 – EXTERNAL RELATIONS & AFFILIATIONS

1 The Union affirms its support for the idea of cooperation among organisations whose aims and objectives are in broad agreement with the Union's, in matters relating to:

- i the advancement of the student experience;
 - ii higher education;
 - iii training; and
 - iv the advancement of knowledge.
- 2 The power of the Union in connection with its external relations shall, in accordance with this Constitution, be exercised by or on the authority of the Executive.
- 3 A policy referendum on the Union's affiliation, as a member organisation, of the Union of Students in Ireland must take place every third academic year.
- 4 1° Notwithstanding Article 14.2.1°(ii) of this Constitution, all Union delegates to the Annual Congress of the Union of Students in Ireland shall be selected to attend by the Executive, and noted by Student Senate, save where otherwise prescribed by Article 16.2.1°(xi), Article 17.3, Article 18.2.1°(x), and Article 19.3 of this Constitution.
- 2° The Executive shall regulate the terms and conditions pertaining to all Union delegates attending the Annual Congress.

PART II – MEMBERSHIP OF THE UNION

Article 5 – ORDINARY & HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

- 1 There shall be two types of membership of the Union, namely; ordinary membership, and honorary membership.
- 2 Ordinary member, in relation to the Union, means:
- i A person registered as a student by the University, or
 - ii A full-time officer of the Union.
- 3 Honorary member, in relation to the Union, means:
- i a person who was elected to the position of President or Vice President, who was not removed from office and who is no longer an ordinary member of the Union, and
 - ii any persons or organisations, conferred with honorary membership by the Executive, subject to confirmation by the Student Senate.
- 4 1° Any member may choose to disassociate from the Union by notifying the President of the Union in writing of their wish to do so.

2° Upon receipt of such notification the Union shall take steps, insofar as same are within the control or power of procurement of the Union, to remove the student's name and contact details from the electoral register and from the Union's communications database(s).

3° The Union is committed to supporting all students of the University whether or not associated with the Union and will notwithstanding notification of disassociation remains available to support any disassociated student should the student subsequently so wish.

5 The Union does not charge a membership fee and relies on income generation and a block grant allocation from the University to fund its activities.

Article 6 – RIGHTS & OBLIGATIONS OF MEMBERS

1 1° All ordinary members of the Union shall have the following rights:

- i To use facilities and premises that the Union provides as regulated by the Executive.
- ii To vote in Union elections, subject to this Constitution and Union electoral regulations.
- iii To run for and hold office in the Union, subject to this Constitution and Union electoral regulations.
- iv To appeal any action of the Union to the Board of Trustees, or such appropriate representative body as determined by the Board of Trustees.

2° All honorary members of the Union shall have the following rights:

- i To use facilities and premises that the Union provides as regulated by the Executive.

2 1° All ordinary members of the Union shall have the following obligations:

- i To comply with the rules of the Club. A member may have the right to use the facilities and premises of the Union removed if found to be in breach of these rules.
- ii To be always in possession of their student card while on Union premises and shall present it on request from any member of Union staff.

2° All honorary members of the Union shall have the following obligations:

- i To comply with the rules of the Club. A member may have the right to use the facilities and premises of the Union removed if found to be in breach of these rules.

PART III – GOVERNANCE OF THE UNION

Article 7 – GOVERNANCE OF THE UNION

- 1 1° Subject to this Constitution, the authority of the governance of the Union shall be vested in, and exercised by, the governance bodies established by this Constitution, namely:
 - i Referendum;
 - ii Board of Trustees;
 - iii Student Senate;
 - iv Executive
 - v President.
- 2° Subject to this Constitution and in derogation from subsection 1° of this section, the authority of the governance of the Union in relation to electoral policy and procedures shall be vested in and exercised by the Electoral Commission.
- 2 Union Policy may only be altered or revoked at the same or higher level of governance at which it was enacted.
- 3 1° During any meeting held within the terms of this Constitution, the chairperson of that meeting shall have authority to rule on any matter arising regarding the process of that meeting, subject to any standing orders or terms of reference the representative body may adopt.
2° Any and all such decisions made by the Chairperson may be appealed to the Rules & Procedures Committee.

Article 8 – UNION POLICY

- 1 1° No form of Union Policy shall supersede any provision of the articles of this Constitution.
2° No form of Union Policy shall supersede any provision in the schedules of this Constitution, except for a policy issued by a Policy Referendum.
- 2 The Student Senate may alter the Preamble and Schedules of this Constitution by the passing of a motion by a two-thirds majority at a quorate sitting of the Student Senate and shall come into effect at 1 am on the morning following the day upon which the result of the motion is declared, or such other time as specified in the relevant motion.
- 3 There shall be a mechanism by which Union Policy shall be documented.

- 4 Schedule 1 of this Constitution shall set out the Union's policy structure and the policy-making powers of each representative body.

PART IV – THE REFERENDUM

Article 9 – REFERENDUM

- 1 A referendum of all the members of the Union shall be the supreme authority on all matters relating to the government and policy of the Union.
- 2 There shall be three categories of referendum, namely:
 - i Constitutional Referendum;
 - ii Policy Referendum; and
 - iii Impeachment Referendum.
- 3 There shall be one means by which to call a referendum, namely a referendum direction ('by direction').
- 4 The President, with the support of the Executive, shall ensure the implementation of any decision made by referendum.
- 5 The Electoral Commission shall be responsible for the regulation of referendums, subject to this Constitution.

Article 10 – CONSTITUTIONAL REFERENDUM

- 1 A Constitutional Referendum shall be the only means by which the articles of this Constitution may be amended.
- 2 A Constitutional Referendum shall be held to have been approved by the membership of the Union if:
 - i a majority of the votes cast at such referendum shall have been cast in favour of the proposal, and
 - ii not less than 15% of the membership of the Union shall have voted in such referendum.
- 3 A constitutional amendment or new constitution approved in a Constitutional Referendum shall remain in effect until altered or replaced by a further Constitutional Referendum or as outlined in the original referendum.

Article 11 – POLICY REFERENDUM

- 1 A Policy Referendum shall be called to set or amend the policy of the Union in relation to a particular issue or a related set of issues, or to set aside a policy set in a previous Policy Referendum.
- 2 While in effect, a policy set in a Policy Referendum shall be binding on all officers and bodies of the Union, subject to the provisions of this Constitution and the law.
- 3 No Policy Referendum shall be officially recognised by the Union if the referendum is in relation to a topic within the competencies of the Board of Trustees.
- 4 1° A policy approved in a Policy Referendum shall remain in effect until set aside/ amended by a further Policy Referendum or as outlined in the original referendum.
2° Any Policy Referendum that affiliates the Union with another organisation shall lapse after three years from the date of its issuance.

Article 12 – IMPEACHMENT REFERENDUM

- 1 An Impeachment Referendum shall be the only means for the vacation of the office of any member of the Executive other than:
 - i death,
 - ii resignation, or
 - iii permanent incapacity,
 - (a) The Board of Trustees is responsible for deciding if a member of the Executive is permanently incapacitated.
- 2 1° A proposal by direction to call an impeachment referendum against any member of the Executive shall not be entertained by the Student Senate unless upon a notice of motion in writing signed by not less than two-thirds of the members of the Student Senate.
 - i No such proposal shall be adopted by the Student Senate save upon a motion of the Student Senate supported by not less than two-thirds of the total membership thereof.
- 2° When a charge has been preferred by direction, the Disciplinary Committee of the Board of Trustees shall:

- i investigate the charge, or
- ii cause the charge to be investigated.

3° The member of the Executive that is subject to the charge shall have the right to appear and to be represented at the investigation of the charge.

- i The Union shall not be liable for any costs associated with the representation of the member of the Executive that is subject to the charge, save those costs awarded by a court or tribunal of lawful jurisdiction.

4° After the charge of stated misbehaviour has been investigated, the Speaker of the Student Senate shall receive the report of the Disciplinary Committee of the Board of Trustees and shall either:

- i Facilitate a discussion and vote on the notice of motion, if the Disciplinary Committee has found the charge(s), or part thereof, have been sustained and that the stated misbehaviour was such as to render the member of the Executive unfit to continue in office; or
- ii Postpone indefinitely the notice of motion without discussion and vote, if the Disciplinary Committee has found the charge has not been sustained or that the charge(s), or part thereof, have been sustained but that the stated misbehaviour was not such as to render the member of the Executive unfit to continue in office.

5° If the notice of motion in paragraph i of subsection 4° of this section is adopted by the Student Senate at a validly called and quorate meeting with the support of not less than two-thirds of the members present an Impeachment Referendum may proceed.

- 3 Any person who has been impeached shall be barred from standing for election in the Union for a period of three years from the date of impeachment. This provision shall overturn all electoral mandates.

PART V – THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Article 13 – THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

- 1 There shall be a Board of Trustees to defend the long-term interests of the Union and have oversight and responsibility in relation to the Union's financial, trading, budgetary and governance matters.
- 2 1° The Board of Trustees has reserved competence in the following areas:

4 This Article shall be omitted from every official text of this Constitution published after the expiration of the said period.

SCHEDULES

PART I – UNION POLICY

Schedule 1 – UNION POLICY

- 1 The hierarchy of the Policy of the Union shall fall under the following headings in hierarchical order, namely:
 - i Articles of this Constitution,
 - ii Policy Referendum Mandate,
 - iii Schedules of this Constitution,
 - iv Policy Documents,
 - v Mandates,
 - vi Regulation,
 - vii Directives,
 - viii Decisions,
 - ix Recommendations.
- 3° If it is the case that two or more policies, which are different types of policy, are conflicting in substance, the policy which is of a higher hierarchal level in subsection 1° of this section, shall prevail, regardless of which representative body issued the policy.
- 4° If it is the case that two or more policies, which are the same type of policy, that were issued by different representative bodies of the Union, are conflicting in substance, the policy issued by the representative body of the Union that is of a higher hierarchical level in the governance of the Union hierarchy, shall prevail.
- 5° If it is the case that a policy issued by a representative body of the Union contradicts a policy, that is the same type of policy that was previously issued by the same representative body of the Union, the most recently issued policy shall prevail.
- 6° Each representative body of the Union that can issue a policy may only do so if the policy being issued is pertaining to the competencies of that representative body.
- 2 1° An Article of this Constitution, hereinafter referred to as an 'Article', is a form of Constitutional Policy.
 - 2° An Article cannot be altered by any means with the exception of a Constitutional Referendum.

- 3° An Article supersedes all other forms of Union Policy.
- 3 1° A Policy Referendum Mandate is the type of policy created from a Policy Referendum. The policy is binding and supersedes all provisions in the Schedules of the Constitution, but not the Articles of the Constitution.
- 2° Policy Referendum Mandates can only be issued by a Policy Referendum.
- 4 1° A Schedule of this Constitution, hereinafter referred to as a 'Schedule', is the second form of Constitutional Policy.
- 2° A Schedule may be altered by:
- i A Constitutional referendum, or
 - ii An amendment passed by the Student Senate.
- 5 1° A Policy Document is a binding course of action or a set of principles adopted by the Union.
- 2° Policy Documents can be issued by the Board of Trustees only.
- 6 1° A mandate is a binding order or set of principles issued by the Student Senate or the Executive that binds the Executive to complete it.
- 2° Mandates can be issued by the:
- i Student Senate, and
 - ii Executive.
- (a) Mandates issued by the Executive must be ratified by the Student Senate at the next sitting of the Student Senate, if the mandate is not ratified at that sitting the mandate shall cease to take effect. A mandate which is similar in substance to the mandate that was not ratified by the Student Senate may not be issued by the Executive again in the session of the Student Senate that the non-ratified mandate was issued unless granted express permission by the Student Senate.
- 3° Notwithstanding subsection 5° of section 1 of this schedule and in extraordinary circumstances, the Executive may issue a mandate that is pertaining to the remit of the Student Senate.
- 4° A Mandate shall lapse:

- i three years after the date of its issuance.
 - ii as outlined in the Mandate; or
 - iii if it is altered or revoked.
- 7 1° A regulation is a binding set of detailed rules issued by a representative body of the Union that regulates the duties and affairs of a specified group of people, service, or facility.
- 2° Regulations can be issued by all representative bodies of the Union.
- i All representative bodies may only issue a regulation that regulates the originating representative body's internal affairs and procedures, with the exception of the Electoral Commission, Board of Trustees, and the Executive.
 - ii The Electoral Commission may regulate their internal affairs and procedures and the rules and procedures surrounding Union Elections, with the exception of electoral appeals.
 - (a) Notwithstanding subsection 4° of section 1 of this Schedule, any regulation issued by the Electoral Commission may only be revoked or altered by the Electoral Commission, and if it is the case that a regulation issued by the Electoral Commission is conflicting in substance with a regulation issued by another representative body of the Union, the regulation passed by the Electoral Commission shall prevail.
 - iii The Board of Trustees and the Executive may issue regulations that regulate their internal affairs and procedures, and regulations that pertain to their respective competencies.
- 3° Regulations may only be issued to enforce the provisions contained in the following types of Union Policy:
- i Article of this Constitution,
 - ii Policy Referendum Mandate,
 - iii Schedule of this Constitution,
 - iv Policy Document,
 - v Mandate.
- 8 1° A directive is a binding order made by one governance or principle body, with the exception of a referendum, to a subsidiary body that reports to a governance or principle body.
- 2° Directives can be issued by:

- i A principle body of the Union to a subsidiary body that reports directly to it, and
- ii The President.

(a) The President may issue a directive to any subsidiary body that reports directly to the Executive. This directive must be ratified by the Executive at the next meeting of the Executive, if the directive is not ratified at that meeting the directive shall cease to take effect. A directive which is similar in substance to the directive that was not ratified by the Executive may not be issued by the President again in the session of the Student Senate that the non-ratified directive was issued, unless granted express permission by the Executive.

3° The following representative bodies may not be issued a directive:

- i All principle bodies of the Union,
- ii Disciplinary Committee
- iii Electoral Appeals Committee,
- iv Search Committee,
- v Selection Committee,

4° The Rules & Procedures Committee may not be issued a directive that is pertaining to an appeal of a ruling of any chairperson.
